As usual, the Band and Chorus Auditions will be held separately. Chorus Auditions will take place on Thursday, November 2, 2023. Band Auditions will be on Tuesday, November 28, 2023. Both auditions will take place at Mahwah High School. Please check the Director and Student Audition information for submission deadlines.

Students in your Music Department who wish to participate in both ensembles may do so. Students auditioning for both must be aware of the responsibilities and schedules of both ensembles. If a student chooses to audition for both ensembles and is selected for both, the student must participate fully in both ensembles. Failure to participate fully will result in the student being dropped from both groups. Please advise your students to apply/audition for the ensemble(s) best suited for them.
